of the Bible

Saul:

A New King Chosen

1 SAMUEL 16

1. What can we make from the attitude of Samuel in that he mourns for Saul his entire life, and the Lord's response to this in Vs 1?
2. Why would the Lord need to make an excuse for Samuel, instead of just protecting him? (Vs 2) Would you consider this a half-truth?
3. What was the difference between the Lord's view of Eliab, compared to Samuel's viewpoint? Is this flaw in Eliab found to "bear fruit" anywhere else in Scriptures?
4. Why hadn't Jesse called all his sons come with him to the sacrifice, as this was the command of Samuel?
